re:edit | 10 years

2022 marks ten years of Kirkby Design under the direction of Jordan Mould, The Romo Group's Director of Strategy, Sales & Innovation. To celebrate this milestone, Kirkby Design has curated a collection of ten of their most iconic designs in favourite colours from the past decade.

Previously known as Kirkby House, Jordan Mould took ownership from 2012 and transformed it into what it is known as today. Under his leadership, the brand has continuously innovated and evolved, bringing unique designs to the interiors market.

Over the past decade, Kirkby Design has established itself as a design led brand with a focus on sustainability. By taking risks and having fun, their playful and experimental approach has created a unique place in the market for Kirkby Design. Their distinctive aesthetic helps them stay ahead of the curve, earning them a place as an industry leader in cutting-edge fabrics, wallcoverings, and accessories.
