RHYTHM

Decorative Weaves and Embroideries

Taking cues from the rhythmic forms of West African textiles, Mark Alexander presents Rhythm an inspiring collection of decorative weaves and embroideries. An array of original designs, Rhythm perfectly balances versatility, sophistication and a palette of rich colours to create a collection that effortlessly combines to form a well-travelled and lived-in aesthetic.

Highlights include Kente, a deliberately offset checkerboard design made using Mark Alexander's bespoke blended linen yarns; Scribe, a soft pure linen featuring accents of hand embroidery; and Sway a textural sheer that features an open leno weave that showcases innovative blended yarns.

"As brand ambassadors for Master of Linen we have used the highest quality linen. A durable and renewable fibre, the flax used requires very little input from farmers during the growing process. Using this remarkable fibre, we have been able to further expand the distinctive aesthetic of the Mark Alexander brand in this striking collection of decorative weaves and embroideries."
