MIZUMI CUSHION
COLLECTION

PRESS RELEASE

MIZUMI CUSHIONS

Inspired by the work of prominent woodcut artist Katsutoshi Yuasa, Black Edition has embarked on an exploration of time-honoured Japanese printmaking practises to create the luxurious Mizumi cushion collection. Enriched with colourful, contemporary designs and indulgent textures, abstract stories and landscapes from Katsutoshi Yuasa's work have been reimagined to form part of this unique range of cushions.

About Black Edition

Infused with rich, contemporary elegance Black Edition led by Design Director Emily Mould, has continued to forge its own unique identity. Creating designs with a distinctive, edgy style and characteristic colour palette, Black Edition continues to establish itself as a trendsetting brand in the world of high-end interiors.

About the Collaboration:

Katsutoshi Yuasa is a Tokyo-born artist known for his large, scenic woodcut prints crafted from his own digital photography. He received a BA degree in Fine Art, painting and printmaking from Musashino Art University in Tokyo, and later went on to complete his MA at the Royal College of Art in London.

Black Edition is part of The Romo Group, a family run business in its fifth generation. The range is available worldwide through an extensive network of selected interior designers and retail outlets.

Please contact us for price information, samples and images, we are also happy to arrange interviews and offer expert commentary from our designers.
