PRESS RELEASE

TABALA

Decorative Prints, Weaves & Embroideries

Confident in their design aesthetic, Black Edition has crafted Tabala, a collection that pays homage to the brand's distinctive character, whilst artistically narrating a new path forward.

Created with the desire to transform a space, to offer comfort and instil a sense of calm whilst still expressing personality, the Tabala collection is more than a fleeting, decorative flourish, instead they help create an everlasting home.

Throughout this anthology of refined designs, the sense of enduring beauty and a focus on sophisticated simplicity radiates.

Finding inspiration in a wealth of eclectic artistry, the collection sees abstract forms, graceful silhouettes, and irregular shapes, blend softness and structure through the considered use of indulgent, rich qualities. Sophisticated jacquards, delicate embroideries and opulent velvets exemplify a sense of luxury, further enriched by a restrained palette of elegant shades considerably chosen to allow the design and quality to take centre stage.

“This season we have focused on combining softness and structure, the designs vary from loose, painterly patterns to more definite geometric forms. The collections are a real play of textures, with luxurious satins and silks, as well as charming bouclés, and natural fibre wallcoverings that we feel elevate the designs to new levels of luxury”

Emily Mould,
Director of Design & Excellence
