Recycled Washable Plain

More than meets the eye; it is easy to mistake this seemingly unassuming plain for a charming linen, yet Elio is woven from 100% PET recycled plastic bottles. This linen effect fabric is both mindful and usable without compromising on its remarkable softness and beautiful handle.

A mainstay of the Romo library, a practical and versatile plain is of the utmost importance and Elio is no exception. Incredibly durable and wonderfully versatile, this recycled quality is suitable for drapes and upholstery, washable, inherently fire retardant and Oeko-tex certified. With its joyful and comprehensive palette including an abundance of on-trend and classic colours that will stand the test of time, this innovative fabric is destined to be a plain of choice.
