IOKA

Washable Recycled Sheers

Synonymous with softness and delicacy, sheers possess a graceful, floaty quality that creates a light-filled ambiance. Embracing these principles, Ioka FR introduces two distinct qualities: an airy, lightweight sheer and a relaxed semi-sheer. Both offer a characterful texture, beautiful fluidity, and an ethereal essence.

A harmonious blend of beauty, functionality and sustainability, Ioka FR sheers are woven from 100% recycled polyester, cleverly designed to mimic the soft, relaxed nature of linen. A fresh approach to colour, the palette is a timeless blend of shades including soothing neutrals and invigorating hues of coral, cool blues and spring greens.
