

A photograph of a bedroom interior. In the foreground, a bed is covered with a grey, textured duvet. Several pillows are arranged on the bed, including two light-colored rectangular pillows and one larger, white, rounded pillow. To the left of the bed, a small white bedside table holds a lamp with a grey, cylindrical shade. The background wall is a mix of textures, featuring a large, vertical, light brown textured panel and a darker, distressed grey section below it. On either side of the bed, there are sheer white curtains with a delicate grey floral pattern. The overall lighting is soft and natural, creating a calm and rustic atmosphere.
