Wallcoverings

Scene Wallcoverings is a collection of vinyl and non-woven wallcoverings inspired by oriental culture, vast landscapes and colourful horizons. Expressive and unique, enticing textures are paired with a muted palette to create wallcoverings that are full of charm.

A calming range, the Scene wallcoverings collection features sophisticated and elegant designs that depict soft focus points of lights, abstract landscapes and subtle silver birch branches, complimented by a stunning distressed wallcovering, a subtle linear design and an all-over design which mimics an embroidery.

The collection is completed by Kishi, a striking wall mural that exudes natural beauty, with fluid, wild grasses that hint at a Japanese aesthetic. Taking cues from the craft of origami and the layering of paper, an intriguing play with focus and opacity forms a gentle movement across the wall.

"Vivid yet subtle, the Scene wallcovering collection features designs and a colour palette that can be used in any interior to create a truly tranquil space."
