Still Life Wallcoverings

This season the Villa Nova studio have produced a creative wallcovering collection that is a culmination of time spent capturing the beauty in the everyday.

The concept of the home has become increasingly important, with creating a space to unwind and that promotes wellbeing at the forefront. The Still Life Wallcoverings collection embraces this and the idea of pausing for reflection and celebrates the incidental placement of objects, finding a wonder and a new appreciation of ordinary items with their appealing familiarity and nostalgic charm.

This delightful and unassuming collection that has a home-grown artistic feel, inspired by found objects and rambling foliage. Larger-than-life brush strokes and looping pencil sketches add a hand-crafted appeal to the collection whilst simple, yet effective textured surfaces add tactile interest to the designs. The collection is completed by a stunning patchwork mural, made up from express sweeping water colour brush strokes.

All wallcoverings in the collection are non-woven, paste the wall and feature a washable finish.

"With a focus on wellbeing and creating a tranquil space our Still Life wallcoverings aim to inspire you to take a moment to reflect and appreciate the beauty found at home"

Hayley McAfee, Villa Nova Design Director
