Press Release

PANTELLERIA

Prints & Weaves

Celebrating a decade in design, Zinc Textile presents Pantelleria, two audacious, yet sophisticated collections of statement decorative prints and weaves.

Little more than a dot in the sea between Sicily and Tunisia, Pantelleria, known as 'the black pearl of the Mediterranean', is the backdrop and inspiration for the latest collections. A melting pot of culturally inspired designs, Pantelleria offers a mix of styles from Turkish and Spanish to North African influences.

Pantelleria is a destination where the glitterati go to see and not be seen and boasts houses owned by Giorgio Armani and Madonna. It is also the location for the film 'A Bigger Splash', that was filmed at the Tenuta Borgia Estate, the same location as Zinc Textile's latest photography.

With a discerning eye for the supremely stylish, Zinc has created an abundance of impactful designs and qualities that further add to their evolving library of playful prints and weaves.

"Discreet, private luxury is the order of the day on Pantelleria, a feeling that resonates with our latest collections. Embracing the untouched wildness and beauty found on the island and combining it with pure luxury we have created a collection that not only pays homage to the island but also to ten years of Zinc Textile."

Justin Marr, Design Director

PANTELLERIA

Decorative Prints

Inspired by the rich colours and simple, yet eye catching designs found on the island of Pantelleria, classic motifs have been reimagined in a signature Zinc style. A large scale Ikat embellishes rugged jute, while watercolour washes and an abstract geometric decorates a faux silk, offering an assortment of qualities that are as varied as the designs on them. A mixed palette of vibrant jewel tones, warm terracotta and soft grey injects further personality into this bold new collection.

Decorative Weaves

A stylish treasure trove of diversely inspired pattern and rich colour, Pantelleria Weaves offers an eclectic mix of relaxed designs that coordinate perfectly with one another. Playful velvets are a defining statement of the collection, while decorative jacquard weaves and colourful chenille, prove that rough and refined work effortlessly together. Pantelleria Weaves showcases Zinc's experimentation of colour, with a palette that bursts with deep jewel tones, flamboyant orange and pink hues, alongside their signature metallics.
